

Endo-Webinar from Malaysia with 1,000 participants from all over APAC

Congratulations to our colleagues in Malaysia for their first successful webinar! More than 1,000 participants from all over Asia Pacific attended on April 17th when Dr Abhishek Parolia, endodontist and Head of Clinical Dentistry, Faculty of Dentistry, International Medical University, presented the “Root to Crown Concept in Molar Endodontics – Evidence Based”.

Thanks to the great organization by Haniff Syah, Assistant Marketing Manager from Malaysia, and Eric Zhan, Digital Marketing Coordinator from Australia, it turned out to be a huge success with an audience joining in from various countries. The feedback speaks for itself:

- “That was such a well put presentation, absolutely worth every minute. Glad I could attend it” Dr Mudita Verma, India
- “Thank you for taking time to give such an amazing lecture. Sending love all the way from Adelaide!” Dr Janice Soh, Australia
- “Excellent” Prof Jukka Matinlinna, Finland
- “The Lecture was so good!” Dr Chen WQ, Malaysia
