

Dentsply Sirona on Forbes' America's Best Employers List with top ranking

Dentsply Sirona, the largest manufacturer of professional dental products and market leader in the dental industry, has achieved an excellent ranking as a "Best Employer" in the business magazine Forbes. Among healthcare industry employers in the US, Dentsply Sirona received the most recommendations.

York/Salzburg, June 20, 2018. The world's most celebrated American business magazine Forbes, in collaboration with Statista, has identified the best employers in America. Dentsply Sirona ranked number one in the Healthcare Equipment & Services Industry on the Top 500 List. The company placed in the Top 100 in the overall ranking.

Statista anonymously interviewed 30,000 Americans working for companies employing at least 1,000 people in the US. The respondents were asked to rate on a scale of zero to ten how likely they would be to recommend their employer to a friend or family member. In addition, Statista asked employees to nominate organizations from other industries. The published list contains the 500 employers that received the most recommendations (www.forbes.com/best-employers/list/).

"We are very pleased to receive this recognition as a "Best Employer" and believe it is the result of our efforts to provide our employees with meaningful jobs in an environment where we are committed to helping them perform better and develop faster," said Maureen MacInnis, Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources & Communications at Dentsply Sirona.

Employees are the foundation of the company's success

Dentsply Sirona truly believes one of its key competitive advantages is its employees. In such a tight labor market, being able to differentiate itself as an employer of choice is critically important to being able to compete for the most capable employees. Maureen MacInnis stated, "Our employees and their engagement are very important to us and is a critical component to enabling our organization for success. Our employees allow us to continue to be at the forefront of our industry and, because of them, we are able to offer our customers the best dental products and the best dental solutions."

Dentsply Sirona offers employees in more than 40 countries worldwide global career opportunities and a variety of training and development programs through the framework of the Dentsply Sirona University. The University includes leadership development programs for all levels in the organization, including the Women Inspired Network, which specifically supports women in accelerating their career development.
